

NOVEMBER, MONTH OF THE SUFFERING SOULS

November 1-2, 1965 The Lord Jesus flooded me with extraordinary sufferings which grew greater at night. I was bent over when I walked. Also, a fear of death took hold of me. I had never experienced this in all my life. . . .

The next morning, I felt a relief which increased throughout the day. Suddenly, the Lord Jesus spoke again.

Jesus: "My Soul, do you believe that I love you very much? I used this violent suffering which you have endured for the suffering souls. Now, I smile upon you."

At that moment, I felt as if my soul separated from my body. The Lord Jesus spoke again.

Jesus: "God smiles upon you. You see, with My divine smile, you can easily endure the great and violent sufferings. The souls in purgatory need your sufferings so much because you now share in the work of the Church Suffering. Suffer with a smile! Let no one know, let no one see, this is a secret between the two of us. Only God grants this and I give it only to the souls who know how to endure ceaseless sufferings with a smile."

p269: Jesus: "My light permeates you and surrounds you. Through Me, you enlighten in the obscure Advent these souls awaiting Me. The sacrifices of your life, united with My merits, will be light for them. I said, 'You are the light of the world' to those whom I filled with the special light of My grace. You and others must give light to the dark parts of the earth which are in the shadow of sin, such that My divine light attracts towards the true road those souls teetering in the shadow of sin and death." Today, I meditated all day on the Lord's words, and I thought especially of these: "The sacrifices of your life, united with My merits, will be light for them."

p275: Jesus: "On the chords of your soul, I play the melody of repentance. Upon hearing this melody, even the obstinate sinner will convert. This melody comes from all the suffering you accept. It is the melody of your accepted sacrifices whose sound penetrates souls, and through it, you make reparation for sinners."

p277: Jesus: "Look, the Word became Flesh." No matter what I tried, I was not able to grasp the significance. The Lord Jesus drew my attention to this reality. "Even now, adorable Jesus, I cannot grasp this miracle." The Lord Jesus continued: Jesus: "I am not surprised, My little one. I reassure you, no one has understood this great miracle until now except My Mother; for to understand it, it is necessary to accept suffering also. It is only through suffering that the soul can understand the great miracle of the Incarnation of the Word. Through the consummation of the sacrifice, will be clarified in your soul what I did for you, for all."

p279: Jesus: "Do you wonder how you can see and comprehend the divine mysteries with so much clarity? Only can see them is the one whose sight is one with My divine gaze, and whose thought is one with My thoughts. My Elizabeth, many of the divine mysteries you've been experiencing on account of my divine clarity in periods of ecstasy, strengthen you across the suffering that you must bear for the salvation of souls. I know you suffer with joy and I will continually strengthen your availability for sacrifices since I know you will need it and those I have sent you to, with respect to our holy communications. You must make sacrifices on their behalf.

P280: Jesus: "Each tear drop that the suffering draws from your eyes will fall upon the souls of sinners and bring forth their tears of repentance."
