November 1, 2020 Feast of All Saints

Dear Brothers in Christ:

As the National Spiritual Director of the Flame of Love Movement, I praise God and thank you for taking time to learn how we can strengthen our faith and those we serve. Saint Charles Borromeo counsels us to nurture our own soul before serving others. When Tony Mullen introduced me to the Flame of Love Devotion, I was amazed at his intense desire to grow in holiness. Each time we celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Tony witnessed how Jesus and Mary stirred into flame the faith of Elizabeth Kindelmann. Her diary records her journey of holiness and how the Holy Spirit graced and guided her “to blind Satan and grow in intimacy with Jesus and Mary.”

Parish cenacles of the Flame of Love devotions bless all with extraordinary graces flowing from His Divine Mercy. The Triumph of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in union with the Immaculate Heart of Mary enkindles a new Pentecost. Together we evangelize those seeking God’s meaning and purpose for their lives. The sacrificial love between Jesus and Mary inspires us to imitate Kindelmann’s practice of reparatory sacrifice in union with Our Lord for the salvation of souls by a weekly commitment to Eucharistic Adoration, daily rosary, study of the diary and classic work of St. Frances de Sales, “An Introduction to the Devout Life”. The Flame of Love devotions intensify our need to pray, fast, sacrifice and love as Jesus and Mary as a sure path to sainthood.

We are grateful to the priests who have welcomed the Movement and offer our leadership to begin a cenacle in your parish. The Movement has approval of our Holy Father, Cardinal Peter Erdo of Hungary and Bishops in the United States. Flame of Love books and on line video teachings are available on our website. We can help you recruit new adorers by participating in your parish Eucharistic Adoration. If you are interested in beginning a Flame of Love Cenacle, please email me at frralph@stmarymagdalen.net or one of our leaders listed on website, www.flameoflove.us.

May the Lord Jesus and our Blessed Mother inflame our hearts with the presence, power and peace of the Holy Spirit.

Fraternally,

Monsignor Ralph J. Chieffo
